Dear Rob ✓

Thank you very much for supporting NSAA in so many ways. In particular, thank you for presenting so brilliantly at Speakers Academy, and for staying to support Robyn.

Sincerely yours

Rodney is Australia's (mis-)leading comedian, using characters and accents to satirise management language. He is a corporate impostor who delivers comic, fraudulent keynote speeches at business events. He has performed his Hoaxes and Jokeses® for many organisations over the past two decades.

Based in Sydney, Rodney has worked extensively throughout Australasia. He has had more than 30 international tours ... to Britain, the United States, South Asia and Oceania. He has held appointments as artist-in-residence at Harvard University, the Australian Graduate School of Management, the University of New England, and the Macquarie Dictionary.
