Rob Salisbury CSP

Why do some businesses seem to succeed so easily while others struggle with low cash flow, staff difficulties and high stress for the business owner?

In this one hour CD, you will hear an engaging interview with radio personality Steve Barker and professional speaker and business builder, Rob Salisbury.

You will learn a proven business model and system that has inspired change in thousands of small to medium sized business owners and transformed the way in which they do business today.

In addition to the model and how it works so easily to bring about change and revenue, you will hear from three business owners who have used this system in the technology, retail and financial services industry with powerful and lasting results.

22 Page workbook and audio CD included
